The first lighthouse on Arranmore was completed in 1798 by Thomas Rogers on behalf of the Barrack Board. In 1810 the Lighthouse came under the control of the Ballast Board and considerable improvements were made to the light during the period 1817-24.

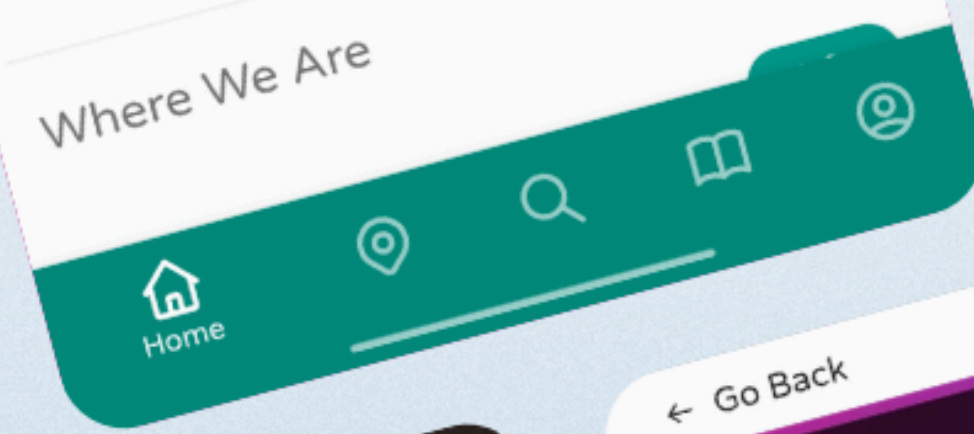

When the Lighthouse on Tory Island was established in 1832, the light on Arranmore was discontinued, despite protests from mariners using those waters. The protests never subsided, and eventually in 1859, on receipt of numerous memorials from Masters and shipowners, approval was granted for the establishment of a lighthouse on Tory Island.

Hailed as one of the most scenic pitches in Ireland, maybe the world, Rannagh Park is the home of Arranmore United and host of the annual June Bank Holiday, Arranmore Challenge.

The park is situated on the south side of Arranmore, near Aphort strand.

Arranmore Lighthouse
Teach Solais Árann Mhór

A scenic view of a coastal town at dusk. The sky is a mix of blue and orange, with soft clouds. In the foreground, a paved road leads down a hillside towards the sea. To the right, a white building with a dark roof is visible, with the name 'Hilleens' written on its side. The sea is calm, and the overall atmosphere is peaceful and serene.
